

The Complete Studio Drummer Toolbox:

- Drums in perfect shape, with pristine tension rods, lugs and hoops.
- Drumheads new or in extremely good state, and well tuned.
- Complete cymbal set.
- Electronic instrumentation, pads, samplers, drum machines.
- Possibly an additional full cymbal set, alternative to the main one.
- Hardware, stands and drum throne in good conditions, quiet, with perfectly working screws.
- At least one additional cymbal stand.
- At least one batter Snare Drum and Bass Drum spare drumhead.
- At least one resonant Snare Drum spare drumhead.
- At least one extra Crash cymbal.
- Possibly two or more alternative Snare Drums.
- Quiet, perfectly working Snare Drum strainers.
- Beaters of all kinds: extra sticks, brushes, multi-rods, mallets.
- Drum dampeners to control sustain, resonance and tone.
- Bass Drum patches.
- A sturdy drum rug, at least 2 x 1.5 meters (6.5 x 5 feet).
- Personal in-ear and headphone monitors, with jack to minijack (and vice versa) adapters.
- Spare headphones.
- Headphone extension cable, at least 3 meters (10 feet).
- Blank sheet music paper, pencils, pens and erasers.
- Spare Bass Drum pedal.
- Spare Bass Drum pedal spring.
- Spare Hi-Hat clutch.
- Spare Snare wires.
- At least two spare tension rods compatible with our drums.
- At least two drum tuning keys.
- Personal music stand.
- Music stand light and extra batteries.
- Tambourines, shakers, cowbells and other small percussion instruments.
- Spare cymbal stand felts, wing nuts and screws.
- Plenty of water and snacks.
- Emergency tool kit: screwdrivers, wrenches, pliers, duct tape, scissors, cable ties.
- Power strip and extension cord.
- USB Flash Drive with audio files of our favorite click sound.